Multicultural Youth Photo Session
in Miura Peninsula

Call for participants

Let's take nice landscape photos in great locations of Miura Peninsula!!
Please come with your friends!!

Participants of Yokohama International Youth Photo Project 2018
Photo by Nobuko Oyabu, Director of Picture This Japan

Organized by:
Kanagawa International Foundation
The Museum of Modern art, Kamakura＆Hayama

Date/Venue
Photo session①　　　　　3 March 2019 (Sun.)
　　　　　　　　　　　　　13：30〜17：30
　　　　　　　　　　The Museum of Modern art, Kamakura＆Hayama
　　　　　　　　　　(2208-1, Isshiki, Hayama, Kanagawa)
Photo session②　　　　　10 March 2019(Sun.)
　　　　　　　　　　　　　13：30〜17：30
　　　　　　　　　　Yokosuka Museum of Art (4-1 Kamoi,Yokosuka-shi)
Publication of works　　13 April 2019 (Sat.)
　　　　　　　　　　　　　13：30〜17：00
　　　　　　　　　10 April 2019 (Sun.)
　　　　　　　　　　　　　13：30〜17：00
　　　　　　　　　　The Museum of Modern art, Kamakura＆Hayama
　　　　　　　　　　(auditorium)

Target group: International youth and young adults
(junior high school/high school/vocational school/university students/ that parents etc.)
The number of Participants : 20 people (first-come-first-served)
Participation: Free ※Transportation fee : self-paying ※Free shuttle bus : from Naka-ku and Minami-ku, Yokohama city to Venue/ You can get the detail information at the time of application.

Application/Inquiry: Kanagawa International Foundation (Mr.Norota)
　　　TEL:046-855-1821　E-mail : mulpa@kifjp.org
　※If you apply by Email, please write "MULPA PHOTO SESSION" as the subject and write your name, age, address and contact clearly.
　※If you can't attend both of two sessions, please write it,also.
　※Please bring your camera in the session if you have one.

Application Deadline　27 February 2019 (Wed.)

Lecturer Ms. Nobuko Oyabu
Photojournalist

Graduated from Columbia College Chicago in Photojournalism and worked for a several daily newspapers as a staff photographer in the Midwest of US. Ms. Oyabu has done extensive interviews and photographed survivors of sexual violence, and testified before Congress on the issue of violence against women in 2002.

2002　Visionary Award from Washington DC Rape Crisis Center
2008　Yayori Journalist Award
2011　Alumni of the year, Columbia College Chicago

She now resides in Yokohama with her American family.

MULPA
Museum UnLearning Program for All みんなで"まなびほぐす"美術館—社会を包む教育普及事業—

http://www.kifjp.org/mulpa/